COMMITTEE TODAY OFFERS FIRST TEST FOR REPEAL PLAN

Battle Seen in House Ju-mitting New Amendment to Convention-or State Legislatures.

ROBINSON PLEDGES SPEED IN SENATE

"Prospects Are Good,"
Says Garner, Chief
Sponsor of Immediate Repeal and Beer Action.

BY CECIL B. DICKSON.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The democratic prohibition repeal proposal faces its first test tomorrow in the house judiciary committee with a battle threatened over submitting the new amendment to ratification by convention or by state legislatures.

As wet and dry leaders lined up their forces for a vote on the proposition in the house Monday, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic floor leader, promised quick action on both repeal and beer measures if and when they reach the senate after house action.

Wet leaders conceded that if the form of the repeal resolution sponsored by Speaker Garner stipulating convention ratification is revised by the judiciary committee, a situation might arise whereby the house will have an opportunity to vote on the original measure as well as on the amended legislation. Good."

With reports of additional support from both republicans and democrats, however, the vice president-elect appeared more determined to force the democratic to a vote. "Prospects are good," he said.

Rosie's program called for:

1. Creation of a city legislature of two houses, with the mayor as supreme executive officer, assisted by 10 "cabinet members" and an elected assistant mayor.

2. Elimination of practically all the present county and borough offices with the object of making New York "one city" instead of "five cities in one."

3. Life appointments for all judges, instead of choice by election, with the governor naming judges of higher courts and the mayor naming magistrates and lower court judges.

4. Payment of all teachers salaries by the state instead of by cities and towns.

5. Adoption of a single, unified pension system, supplanting the many and varied systems now in force, with the provision that retired policemen and firemen be given other city positions for which they are fitted.

6. Adoption of a system whereby the state would handle all improvements, such as highways and sewers, would be spread over the entire city, instead of being borne by taxpayers owning property in the vicinity of the improvement.

7. Unification of the New York subway system and the elimination of stockholders in the subway companies, "so that anything in excess of the power to protect the public interest."

Meanwhile, organized dry groups united today in a request to congress for hearings on the repeal and beer proposals. Letters were sent to the house and senate judiciary committees and the ways and means committee asking for permission to be heard.

Beck Dissatisfied.

Beck said he was not in favor of the Garner resolution "will make the process of ratification more difficult and hazardous" and suggested that a "reasonable concession" be made to the dry sentiment through a "further reservation of the right of the power to protect the public interest."

AL IS "KING" NOW OBSERVER OPINES

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith told a legislative investigating committee today just how he would clean up the sidewalks of New York—and in doing so he acquired a new title.

He's the "king" of New York, according to the second son of the governor, outlined his plan for modeling the city charter after the state government.

"He's the 'king' of New York, that's what he is."

"Yeah, you're right," replied his companion in another stage whisper. "He's got a crown. He needs a crown."

"He don't need a crown," said the first man. "He's got a program."

And that sentiment seemed just about unanimous with the hundreds who crowded the public hearing.

SPECIAL SESSION LOOMS ON FAILURE OF FARM MEASURE

ROOSEVELT ANXIOUS FOR AGRICULTURAL RELIEF LEGISLATION TO SET UP MACHINERY FOR 1933 CROP.

BY W. B. RAGSDALE.

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Dec. 1.—(AP)—From the round of conferences being held on the slopes of Pine Mountain there emerged today the definite impression that Franklin D. Roosevelt would call a special session of congress if the next three months do not bring the enactment of farm relief legislation.

The president-elect, himself, at a conference in conference room on sun porch overlooking the valley, declined to "cross that bridge until I come to it," but from persons close to Mr. Roosevelt there came word that he was extremely anxious to have a farm relief measure enacted that would set up machinery for dealing with the 1933 crop. A little earlier in the day he had been in conference with a group of Georgians, plus a delegation from the Crusaders for Economic Liberty in such a way as to stave off a threatened demonstration at Warm Springs and held a long talk about farm relief with George W. Hill, president of the American Tobacco Company.

President-elect's impression grew among persons close to the Roosevelt circle of advisors that Senator Glass, of Virginia, was to be offered the post of secretary of the treasury. The president-elect referred questioners to his recent statement, asserting that cabinet appointment would not be confirmed until after January 1.

In a talk with Mr. Roosevelt was to have had with Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson over plans for his inauguration was put over until tomorrow, although Grayson visited the president-elect late this afternoon with Precknebridge Long, a former assistant secretary of the inauguration committee.

The inquiry board, after spending about 18 months investigating the Tammany-controlled city government, has reached the stage of formulating concrete recommendations to the legislature for basic improvements.

The president-elect referred questioners to his recent statement, asserting that cabinet appointment would not be confirmed until after January 1.

In his talks with Senators George and Cohen and Governor Russell, who soon will replace Cohen in the senate, Mr. Roosevelt went over the general legislative program of the democratic party.

COMMUNISTS TAKE CREDIT FOR MARCH

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Earl Browder, a member of the secretariat of the American communist party, said at national headquarters today that ever since William Z. Foster first suggested a march on Washington, the party has been active in organizing and supporting such a movement both among communists and non-communists.

Speaking for Foster, the party head, who is ill, Browder said the present march was the result of a national committee of unemployment councils on October 10, but that Foster first suggested the action in a speech last September 13.

"The communist party has definitely planned this march from the beginning," Browder said.

A vast majority of the marchers are not communists, he added, "but most of them become sympathetic in the course of the march."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Asserting a belief that the world's business troubles would be aggravated by a resumption of war debt payments, Great Britain appealed to the United States again today for postponement of its installment due December 15, pending a reconsideration of debt agreements.

President Hoover's suggestion that payments might be arranged through the deposit of foreign currency to avoid the export of gold was rejected by the London government.

The London government's note, 6,000 words, was delivered to Secretary Stimson by Ambassador Lindsay early in the day and was the subject of a protracted conference in which President Hoover, Secretary Mills and Mr. Stimson participated.

On the question of when the debt question will be final, there was little disposition to change views previously expressed in opposition to postponed payments, revision or cancellation of the foreign debts.

The note was an amplification of the similar appeal Great Britain made to the League of Nations in March.

Speaker of the house, however, asserted that the British government felt no sufficient reason had been advanced for postponing the installment now coming due.

In addition to Great Britain, France and Belgium together with several smaller countries had asked for an extension of the moratorium and a thoroughgoing survey of the debt situation.

Turning down President Hoover's suggestion for payment in the currencies of the various debtor nations, the British government said:

"... exchange difficulty would remain even if the device were adopted, of payment in sterling to a blocked account for the existence of a foreign exchange market."

In addition to Great Britain, France and Belgium together with several smaller countries had asked for an extension of the moratorium and a thoroughgoing survey of the debt situation.

Meanwhile Franz Von Papen, who resigned the chancellorship last week, and General von Schleicher, regarded by the press as the sole candidate for the post, were summoned to Berlin.

The French note was approved and signed by President Hoover and delivered on the 15th.

It was understood that they told each other about the results of their political scouting expeditions during the last few days.

Both of them subsequently entered Von Hindenburg's study for a review.

While papers gave prominent space to the probable selection of Von Schleicher by the president, Von Hindenburg continued to keep his own counsel on the matter. He declined to comment on the subject.

Continuing also, reports said, was the growing impatience of Von Hindenburg for an early end to the impasse.

Accompanying General Von Papen to the president's office was Dr. Otto Meissner, Hindenburg's executive secretary.

Hindenburg said at Weimar that he would decline to negotiate with General von Schleicher, preferring to have the Nazi demand that he be made chancellor.

Reports continued that Von Hindenburg considered resigning should there be no early solution of the matter. The reports were without official confirmation.

MISTRIAL IS ORDERED FOR THREE BANKERS
ASHEVILLE, N. C., Dec. 1.—(AP) Judge John Paul today ordered a mistrial in the case of three Asheville bankers charged with violating national banking laws when jury reported it was unable to agree after deliberating for more than 40 hours.

The defendants, L. L. Jenkins, former president of the American National Bank; J. Charles Bradford and Russell C. Davis, were charged with conspiracy to misappropriate and misapply funds of the American National bank.

The state alleged funds were taken for the American National to bolster the Central Bank & Trust Company before the latter was closed in 1930. Davis is a brother of Wallace B. Davis, former president of the Central Bank & Trust Company, who is now serving a prison term for bank law violations.

MORE DELAY IS SEEN IN MARTIN INSULL CASE

BARRIE, Ont., Dec. 1.—(AP) It was indicated today that there probably will be another postponement when extradition proceedings are resum'd tomorrow against Martin J. Insull, formerly utilities chief of Chicago for his trial and imprisonment. The new delay, it was said, may result from failure to receive depositions from witnesses in Chicago.

4 COLLEGES REGAIN SCHOLASTIC RATING

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(AP) Four Mississippi colleges, from members in the Association of Colleges & Secondary Schools of the United States in 1930 on charges of lowered scholastic standards, were reinstated by the association today, one unconditionally, another conditionally and two provisionally.

The Mississippi State College for Women, Columbia, was reinstated unconditionally, the University of Mississippi conditionally with the comment that "on account of financial difficulties not now fully meeting one or more of the standards of this association."

Mississippi State College, formerly Mississippi A. & M., and the State Teachers' College at Hattiesburg, were readmitted on probation with the notation, "pending further improvement in educational work and more complete compliance with requirements of this association."

In addition to these four colleges, action bearing on the standing of other institutions was taken, including:

• Sulphur Springs at Benton, Va., placed on probation; and Brenau College, Gainesville, Ga., restored to membership, with the notation "failure to meet certain association standards."

Nominations for membership in the association included:

• Stetson University, Deland, Fla., and Americas College, Americus, Ga.

A new resolutions committee was chosen, which includes Dr. J. S. Stewart, University of Georgia.

CASE OF BUS, TRUCK UPHELD BY ATLANTAN

Presenting the case of the bus and truck on the highway before the Atlanta City Club Wednesday, E. Smythe Gambrell, prominent Atlanta attorney, asserted that the preponderance of evidence showed the Southern railroad companies had held in other sections where the large majority of buses and trucks operating for hire are owned by citizens of Georgia. Mr. Gambrell's talk was made in reply to a presentation of the case of the railroads before the club.

The Center of Georgia railroad,

Gambrell said, "after thought of as Georgia's principal railroad, according to the commission records, apparently is exclusively owned by the Illinois Central Railway Company, of

New York and the Mississippi Valley.

Their voting rights, respectively, are 150,000 and 49,085, as compared to 18 votes in the names of 18 Georgia citizens among the 20 largest security holders of the Central of Georgia. It will be difficult to persuade the thousand of depression victims in Georgia that the foreign owners of these railroads are entitled to first call on the taxes of the citizens of this state to consider their own convenience and their own economies in transportation.

Gambrell asserted that the railroads, a few months ago, sought to enlist the support of organized labor in their fight to eliminate motor com-

When labor analyzed the fight,

he said, "and refused on the merits to endorse such a fight the railroads went to Wall Street and sought to enlist help there on the argument that the falling of railroad security values would undermine large financial institutions holding them."

Approximately 80 per cent of the ownership of all railroads operating in Georgia, Gambrell added, is held outside the state.

"TALOO" BANKHEAD

LEAVES HOLLYWOOD WITH NO REGRETS

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Dec. 1.—(AP) Her film career admittedly disappointing to herself, Taloo Bankhead, Alabama actress, who first gained fame on the London stage, has said farewell to Hollywood with "no great regrets."

"I wish my pictures had been better," said Miss Bankhead as she left for Pasadena to board a train for New York. "None of the parts really suited me or my age." Sam Wilkes, agent, said of her talents: "I am proud to possess. But that's over now and there was no one who I feel could be held to blame for it."

The actress denied reports she had signed a new contract with any film company. Eventually she expects to come back to Hollywood, she said, but her immediate plans depend upon developments after she arrives in New York.

AVOID THE DANGER OF CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Overcomes This Condition Safely and Pleasantly

The first signs of constipation may be headaches, tired feelings, sallow complexions, sleeplessness, loss of appetite. If neglected, constipation may seriously impair health.

Today, you can banish constipation by simply eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also a good source of iron for the blood.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle in action similar to leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, and gently clears out the intestinal wastes.

Two tablespoonsfuls daily will overcome most types of common constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

THREE MEALS A DAY

KITCHEN TESTED RECIPES
by Sally Saver

Let's Make Fruit Cakes for Christmas.

There is a saying that anticipation is often more pleasurable than realization of some event. This is especially true of the Christmas season, when preparations for the big day cause so much interesting excitement. There are presents to be made or planned, fruit cakes to be made long ahead of the actual day itself, and all the goodie associated with the season prepared.

In order to get the most out of this previous preparing, it is necessary to start plenty early enough to make the cakes, plus puddings, mince meat and candies. Even cookies are seasoned by a little judicious standing in the cookie jar, provided no one knows of their presence!

Many women are much more fore-handed than ever this first week of December, for they put away choices of glasses or fruit, jellies and other good things from the summer's canning and preserving season, to await the Christmastide as gifts, done up in gay paper and ribbons.

There are many traditional cakes which are made in the holiday season depending upon the taste, however, of one's family. Many of the best, most moist and luscious ones, are of English origin. Any of the cake recipes in this article will turn ready to use. If preferred, cider may be used instead of the milk or fruit juice.

Christmas Fruit Cake.
One cup brown sugar, 1-2 cup shortening, 3 unbeaten eggs, 1-2 cup milk or fruit juice, 1-2 cup molasses, 2-1/2 cups flour, 2-1/2 tsp. baking powder, 1-2 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. cloves, 1 tsp. nutmeg, 1-4 cup cut orange peel, 1-2 cup sliced citron, 1-4 cup chopped figs, 1 cup each of currants and raisins, 1-2 cup chopped nut meats, 1 tsp. cinnamon.

Cream shortening and sugar thoroughly. Break eggs one at a time into mixture, beating well after each addition. Add milk or fruit juice, and the molasses.

In another bowl, mix all the dry ingredients, then add the nuts and fruits to them.

Combine the two mixtures, stir well with stiff spoon. Bake at least 2 hours in well-greased baking pan that has a piece of greased paper in bottom of it. Use slow moderate oven, about 325 degrees, and do not let it go much higher.

When done, and cool, wrap in towels or heavy paper, keep in tin or covered box, or covered crock until used. Flavor with 1 teaspoon lemon extract. When all is mixed together thoroughly, fold in the butter the whites of which have been beaten well.

Technicality Keeps Overdue Pay From Employees of Philadelphia

the Taxpayers' Association, and argument will be heard later.

Meanwhile, city council leaders continued their fight to balance the 1933 budget and a tax reduction. Edward H. Cox, council president, announced at a budget hearing that pay cuts ranging from 11 to 27 per cent have been decided upon by municipal employees this year. He adds that reductions of more than $380,000 have been agreed to by county departments in addition to the $274,000 already slashed from the $88,000,000 estimates.

The council has until December 15, 1933, to complete the budget for the tax rate. On that date, if action on the tax rate is not taken, the present rate of $2.82 1/2, including the 95-cent oil tax, is automatically renewed.

Russell Studies Plea For Steagall Clemency

Governor Richard B. Russell Jr.

Thursday took under advisement an application for commutation of the sentence of E. C. Steagall, former Atlanta policeman serving a term of 15 years for killing W. H. Hanes, a private detective, in August, 1923.

William Schley Howard presented the clemency plea, which was opposed by the State's Attorney, A. J. Holcombe, and by Mrs. Hanes and her three children. On a former occasion a group of Atlanta police officers headed by Captain A. J. Holcombe urged Steagall to be discharged at the soldiers' home since being discharged several months ago, from the veteran's hospital. He was formerly serving in DeKalb county.

B. M. Grant, of B. M. Grant & Co.; M. C. Kiser, of the M. C. Kiser Co.; and G. M. Stout, president of Sharp & Boylston, were elected vice presidents. Ed H. Sims, of Haas, Howell & Simms, was reelected, and J. H. Whitten, of the Rankin-Whitten agency, treasurer. Paul C. Maddox, of Maddox, & Tisinger; Frank C. Owens, of the Draper-Owens Co., and R. C. Mizell, president of the Taxpayers' League, were named directors.

Arthur Stokes will continue as executive secretary in charge of the board's office.

Ward Wright, chairman of the committee on appraisals, reported that during the past eight years of committee work $46,000,000 worth of property had been appraised. Appraisal work had been steady during the past year, he said.

Harris W. Dews, chairman of the membership committee, reported that the board during the past year had suffered a net loss of only one member company. Two important companies were added, he said—the Security Mortgage Co. and Sharp & Borstlon.

Milton H. Liebman, retiring president, was presented with a silver fruit dish in appreciation of the work he had done during the past year in bringing the board through a trying

Mr. Ewing, who is one of the youngest realtors ever elevated to the presidency of the board, assured the board of his best efforts toward helping the members to work out the problems confronting them. He pledged the board his support in reselling the public on the fundamental value of property.

Commissioner Thad Brown, while admitting that the charges had been received in Washington, refused to divulge their nature and would make no comment other than to say that the charges had been turned over to the legal division of the commission, and that nothing would be given out until a report had been made.

L. C. Hendon is acting inspector in charge of this district. He took over the office when Inspector Van Nostrand was suspended.

3 GHOULS SOUGHT IN RESURRECTION OF BURIED WOMAN

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Dec. 1. (UPI)—Three grave-robbing were sought in the village of Trentemare today. They are wanted to be rewarded for having "brought back to life" the wife of a rich farmer.

Several days ago Josefine Nagy died and yesterday she was buried in the village cemetery. Last night the three robbers raided the grave, removed the casket and opened it.

The woman, terrified with astonishment, when Josefine Nagy's corpse suddenly stirred, raised up, looked around and murmured: "Where am I?"

They stood rooted to the ground as the woman stepped out of the casket in a white shroud and walked away from the graveyard. Then they fled.

No less startled was Komroff Nagy and his relatives when Josefine walked into the house. They, too, stood transfixed, believing they were in the presence of a ghost, and it took some time before they were convinced that Josefine was still alive.

When she had told her story of how the three men had opened the casket, Nagy went to village authorities and organized a search.

"I want to pay them for having brought Josefine back to me," he said.

SENTENCE LAW FLAYED IN COURT BY HOWARD

Flaying the present indeterminate sentence law as "detrimental to justice," Superior Judge G. H. Howard yesterday refused to accept a jury's recommendation that a defendant convicted on a robbery charge, given a misdemeanor sentence, and gave Roy Hollis a sentence of from 8 to 12 years.

In meting out the heavier sentence, Judge Howard declared that under the law he did not have to know who he as a judge did know, that the defendant had pleaded guilty previously to two other robbery charges and that when the robbery of which he was convicted Thursday was committed, Hollis was on probation. The indeterminate sentence law allows a jury to fix a defendant's sentence without knowledge of his past record.

NEGRO ON MOTORCYCLE SEIZED WITH LIQUOR

Nabbed as he was bringing four gallons of liquor on a motorcycle into Atlanta, DeKalb county police early this morning arrested John Flu Slaughter, negro, and held him in jail on a charge of possession and transporting. Slaughter was arrested by County Policemen P. N. Turner and C. P. Ford just below Avondale on the Covington road.

Dr. Kenyon L. Butterfield, writer and outstanding authority on rural life in North and South America, Europe, Asia and Africa, will lecture this afternoon at 4:30 in Howe Hall, Spelman College, under the auspices of Atlanta University. His subject will be "The Challenge of the World's Rural Problem." The public is invited. There is no admission fee.

Negro Sentenced.

Lonnie Jones, negro, entered a plea of guilty on a charge of robbery before Judge James R. Hutcheson in superior court Thursday and was given a sentence of from 12 to 18 years, but talked himself into two additional years.

He asked the court to detail the part he committed. Judge Hutcheson listened and then remarked: "Just make that sentence read 12 to 18 years instead of 12 to 16."

DANGER OF EPIDEMIC OF FLU HERE SUBSIDES

What seemed to be a threatened epidemic of influenza was subsiding in Atlanta, Georgia, according to Grady hospital attachés, who reported more than 200 calls from head-colds or flu victims since Monday. More than 100 calls came in during Wednesday night and Thursday and in each case the patient was given treatment by hospital internees, who could not bring them to the institution for treatment because of a lack of an isolation ward for them.

Doctors at the hospital said that in many cases, illness was found to be nothing more than severe cold and said there seemed to be no acute danger of an epidemic.

SEWER BLAST SERIES STARTLES MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 1. (UPI)—Sewer blasts from sewer and gas mains ripped through six square miles of northern Montreal during the night, spreading terror among surprised householders, but only 12 persons were slightly injured.

Damage from fire or explosion was general, however. One three-story building collapsed and many window panes were blown out. Firemen quenched several blazes and five fire-fighters were slightly hurt rescuing endangered citizens.

Manholes flew high in the air, accompanied by sudden flares of bluish yellow flame, tearing up miles of street paving.

AUDITOR ON STAND AT WILLIAMS' TRIAL

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—A. F. Thompson, an auditor from an Atlanta firm, was on the stand throughout the day in the trial of Dr. W. Williams, former waterworks superintendent, who is on trial in Baldwin county superior court charged with embezzlement.

Thompson was the first of some 200 witnesses called by the state this morning. He went into technical details of the water department and the books of the water department.

In his direct testimony Thompson said that he failed to find vouchers showing expenditures for a large number of checks issued by Williams and cashed.

Cross-examination of Thompson had not been completed when court recessed tonight until Friday morning.

Macon Jury Ignores Fingerprint Evidence

MACON, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—The jury took issue with science and the world's best police authorities and rejected fingerprints as conclusive means of identification.

A negro was on trial for burglary. Three fingerprint experts testified thumb marks found on a window sill of the robbery house were left by the defendant.

The jury deliberated a few minutes and returned a verdict of not guilty.

CHARGES OF CRUELTY TO CONVICTS DENIEDWarden Tucker of Decatur County Says Spivak Accusations Are False.

BAINBRIDGE, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—George S. Tucker, warden of Decatur county, in a statement here, denies the charge that convicts have been "restricted in their freedom" as made in the book, "Georgia Nigger."

John L. Spivak, a Negro, says Warden Tucker also denies that convicts were photographed in Decatur county wearing spikes riveted around their ankles, as also reported.

Spivak's book was recently made the basis of an accusation of undue cruelty to convicts in Georgia, made by a group of 12 prominent Americans on behalf of the American Civil Liberties Union.

The plan calls for regional organization of the farmers, their wives, and others interested in agriculture which organizations are to be formed at three meetings to be held in the next 30 days.

The first of these conferences, at which economic studies of the local problems will be made and farm and home programs for 1933 will be worked out, will be held in Atlanta on December 6 and 7. The second meeting will be in Eatonton December 8 and 9, and the third in Greensboro December 20.

Counties to be covered by the project are Wilkes, Oglethorpe, Green, Taliaferro, Hancock, Baldwin, Putnam, Jones, Jasper, Morgan, and Oconee.

S. S. Standard and Mrs. N. R. Bennett are associate chairmen of the Washington conference, and J. M. Gregory and Mrs. Frank Boatwright will serve in similar capacity at Eatonton.

Chicagoans Create Farm Colony In Georgia on Co-operative Plan

MOULTRIE, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—A co-operative farm colony for Chicagoans tiring of the urban bustle is the objective of H. H. Barbour and he's off to a good start.

He has bought a big tract in Cook county, Georgia, and has sent word to those in Chicago with a bent for farming to come down and start plowing. The families have been coming thus far and he's expecting 20 more about the first of the year.

A cash payment of $400 is required of each colonist and in return he gets 10 acres of land, a four-room house, a guarantee that his truck crops will be sold on a basis of 60 per cent for himself and 40 per cent to Barbour and a deal to the property at the end of six years.

The colonizer himself a former Chicagoan, also promises an electric power plant operated co-operatively and a co-operative store with credit for the colonists while crops are growing.

The first migration got under way last October and soon had 100 families in residence. The new farmers built houses for themselves and others to follow. A communal tract was cultivated to insure against hunger pending sale of their crops.

The land lies near Tuckerville and faces the Southern Railway System tracks. Barbour's place is on the colony crops to be loaded on a sailing and shipped directly to purchasers.

T. W. HARRIS, COCHRAN LAND OWNER PASSES

COCHRAN, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—Tindall W. Harris, 43, financier and leading citizen of this city, died today. Mr. Harris followed in the footsteps of his father, John E. Harris, who died at one time resided in Jacksonville, where he had extensive interests.

He was one of the largest land owners in this part of Georgia.

He was a son of late John E. and Virginia Peacock Harris, originally settled in this section. His father was a member of the firm of Flynn, Harris, Bullard Company, large naval stores factors with offices in Jacksonville, Savannah and other points.

Surviving Mr. Harris are his wife, two sons, Tim, Peacock, Harris; two brothers, Wallace L. Harris, Cochran, and John Harris, of Jacksonville; two uncles are W. H. Peacock, Thomason, and J. P. Peacock, Atlanta. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock here.

Mr. Tucker explains in detail the method used in keeping an accurate record of the property and shows that they are well fed, comfortably housed and worked with every consideration for their health and comfort. He also explains the operation of the large county farm on which nearly all of the foodstuffs used at the camp are raised.

Macon Police Foiled By Hatbox Mystery

MACON, Ga., Dec. 1.—(P)—Strange doings have been going on hereabouts and the best brains of the police department haven't found a clue.

A woman registered at a hotel late at night. She had the attitude of a world traveler. Bellhops staggered as they lugget a big hatbox to her room but they did it cheerfully. She looked so important.

Next day she went away and left her baggage and also an unpaid bill. The hotel people weren't worried much. They would just hold her hatbox and its heavy contents and nothing would be lost. They opened it and found nothing but a pile of empty bottles.

Three days later a man in swanky clothes called, paid the bill and went away with the empty bottles.

VALDOSTA, Ga., Dec. 1.—An injunction suit against the state highway department was filed yesterday by the proposal of the department to change the location of state highway No. 11, according to W. B. Conoley, chairman of the board of commissioners of Lowndes county.

A portion of highway No. 11 was held by the state highway department of the legislature. Now that paving operations are being planned and carried out in Berrien and Latimer counties, where No. 11 also runs, it is stated that a movement is underway to turn the highway back to the Alapaha river, taking it entirely out of Lowndes' county. Lowndes county authorities take the position that as the route was fixed by legislative enactment the state highway department has no right to change it.

A recent bill has been introduced in the legislature to turn the highway back and the engineer and Judge A. J. Little, county attorney, has been authorized to resort to an injunction if the movement is continued.

AUGUSTA-CHARLOTTE AIR ROUTE IS OPENEDTwo Planes Complete First Flight on Mail-Passenger Line.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Dec. 1.—(P)—The first northbound flight of the new mail-passenger line came in from Augusta, Ga., and intermediate points with Charlotte was successfully completed today when two planes bearing three masons, aviation officials and hundred pounds of mail landed here shortly after noon.

Major Charles E. Lambeth, of Charlotte, who flew here from Augusta with the official party, stepped from one of the ships and joined a large group of Charlotte citizens in welcoming the new line.

In command was Captain Roy Lambeth, Mayor L. B. Owens, of Columbia, and Mayor L. R. Kennedy Jr., of Camden, the two South Carolina cities the airline touches. News here from Augusta.

Major W. D. Jennings, of Augusta who was unable to make the trip, was represented by R. A. Elliott, aviation chairman of that city.

"If the state tax and the school taxes should be lifted from the shoulders of the farmers and real estate

Mr. Jenkins said he was preparing a bill for establishment of public in-

ROOSEVELT CONFERS WITH STATE LEADERS

George, Russell and Cohen Talk With President-Elect on Legislative Problems.

BY GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.
WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Dec. 1.—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt celebrated "Georgia Day" at the little White House on Pine Mountain here today by devoting the major portion of his working time to conferences with state leaders.

Senator Walter F. George, who will be an important figure in the new democratic administration, led the parade of Georgia political lights conferring with the incoming chief executive on legislative problems to be undertaken after the 4th of March.

Confers With Cohen, Russell.

Later, Governor Roosevelt held similar conversations with Senator John S. Cohen, the present ad-interim junior incumbent, and still later Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., who will succeed Major Cohen after his governorship term expires January 10, called for a brief talk. All three discussed the legislative program to be taken up by the democrats when the party assumes control of the national government.

Major General Edward L. King, commander of the fourth army corps at Atlanta, also conferred with the president-elect on matters relating to the military establishment.

Following his conference, Senator George, a member of the two most powerful committees in the upper branch of congress—foreign relations and the committee on finance—said he found the governor hopeful of avoiding extreme social legislation in the spring, but added that he would be ready to assume full responsibility for calling one if the forthcoming short session failed to enact important phases of the democratic program. He listed in this program farm relief, fiscal affairs which may be said to include such items as credit and beer, and unemployment relief.

President-Elect Hopeful.

Senator George made it plain that the president-elect is hopeful of the short session obviating the necessity of an extra session:

"The extra session, in the event it materializes, will be called for May or June. Senator George said, explaining that the new Roosevelt regime would want a period of at least two months in which to complete its reorganization of the vast federal machine."

HOOVER AND AIDS STUDY NEW NOTE ON BRITISH DEBTS

world trade and would lead to further falls in commodity prices with disastrous consequences from which no nation would be exempt."

A discussion of the entire debt problem between the United States and Great Britain was urged as likely "to be a fruitful issue for revival of world prosperity."

The note also said the British government was "convinced that the prospects of success would be materially improved by the postponement of the December installments" and that it is "prepared to consider with the government of the United States of America any manner in which that postponement might be most conveniently arranged."

In suggesting the suspension of December payment of $85,000,000 the note said this proposal "would in no way affect any ultimate settlement" and "is necessary in view of the existing conditions favorable to a successful issue of subsequent conversations."

The note said: "The difficulties of making transfer in present circumstances are so great and would involve such far-reaching reductions both financial and political that the resulting doubts and anxieties in regard to the immediate situation would distract the attention of governments and people when the chief need was an objective and systematic approach to the problem of world recovery."

The note discussed at length the history of the financial agreements growing out of the war. It conformed with the suggestion of President Hoover that more facts about Great Britain's financial condition would be necessary to command the attention of Picturing the changed conditions which the depression has brought about in the world, since the debts were made, the note said:

"Currencies are threatened with instability if not with collapse and controls and restrictions intended to remunerate the trouble have merely aggravated it."

"In all directions there are signs of paralysis of trade and of financial collapse. The international monetary mechanism without which the world cannot effectively conduct its daily life is being broken into pieces and causing distress and distress which this involves. The countries of the world cannot even begin to consider how to restore this mechanism until the causes which undermined confidence have been removed. One of the most important of these is inter-governmental debts."

"It will not profit a creditor country to collect a few million pounds or dollars if it thereby perpetuates a world disorder which reacting on itself involves losses of revenue many times greater; and a settlement, however general, may set which leaves the economic mechanism of the world by clearing up these inter-governmental payments, would be repaid again and again by the contribution it would make to the world revival."

"For this loss and suffering is not due to this niggardliness of nature. Quite the opposite, physical science is ever growing and the potentialities of the production of real wealth remain unimpeded. It is in the power of the governments of the world and particularly of the United States and of the United Kingdom, as the two greatest creditor nations, if they unite in co-operating, to make the first essential step towards averting disaster, financial, economic and political."

"They've got a lot of high-toned phrases down there that really don't mean anything."

"They don't stop to realize that we are at war here and we cannot stop to think whether the government of the U. S. is going to lose a couple of hundred thousand dollars or gain it."

"The holdup at the present time is in the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and if there ever was any thing that could possibly happen that would show the absurdity of leaving these things as sevens, it is what is taking place down there in Washington at the present time."

Scientific Methods in Business Now Needed, Says Col. Burdick

Declaring that merchandising men must realize that new conditions "have come to stay," Colonel H. H. Burdick, nationally known advertising expert, told members of the Atlanta Ad Club at the regular meeting Thursday that first the merchant must find out what people want and then provide the article.

"Businessmen," he said, "are beginning to realize that they must use scientific methods in advertising and merchandising. Our struggles during recent years have dissipated many pre-conceived notions and all businessmen have at last awakened to the fact that sales, market research and advertising are irreversibly interwoven."

The advertising club is the common meeting ground for all business where new products and new methods are discussed and placed before the buying public. (People have come to realize the importance of advertising and demand that new and varied appeals, suited to section, class and merchandise, be given in advertising.)

Colonel Burdick's talk was based on Detroit, where he has been for many years. He was connected with the newspaper business as reporter, advertising man and publisher. He was introduced to the club by J. S. Roberts, president, who outlined plans for an advertising campaign in January, 1933.

A KEEN APPETITE, SOUND SLEEP AND ZEST FOR LIVING!

"For several years I've been troubled more or less with indigestion, and a year ago I had an acute attack that nearly killed me. The contents of my stomach when they pumped me out were as black as ink. Since that time I've had to limit myself to a very light diet, and not much of that. My stomach often would swell up and make me uncomfortable two or three hours after a meal. Any special exertion would leave me gasping for breath and my heart pounding like a trip hammer.

Three weeks ago I read an endorsement on Sargon that impressed me very much. I went to the drug store to get some, and found there a bunch of people holding a regular "Sargon experience" meeting. I never heard people praise anything more than they did this medicine.

"Well, I've taken the bottles and I've got to the table with a ravenous appetite three times a day and eat whatever I take a notion to, and nothing disagrees with me. The Sargon Pills are unlike all other laxatives I've ever tried. They went right to work on my liver and got it to functioning, and my constipation, which was completely cleared up and vanished. I feel ten years younger than I did three weeks ago, and my gratitude to Sargon is too much to express."

This statement was recently made by Robert J. Kilfoil, La Havre Apartments, Charlotte, N. C.

CRITICS CONDEMN M'ARTHUR REPORT

State Department, Meanwhile, Calls for Copy of Treaty-Belittling' Paper

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(UP)—State department officials have asked the war department for copies of General Douglas MacArthur's annual report calling for an increase in the U. S. army and belittling the worth of treaties.

Secretary of State Stimson declined to comment on the report of an officer outside of his own department. Other state department officials, however, expressed fear that the criticisms might have an unfavorable reaction in Japan. The chief of staff said the Sino-Japanese trouble had caused apprehension here over the strength of United States forces.

While MacArthur's report created consternation in the state department, officials there believed that probably nothing would be said to him about it. Nor will the matter be discussed with Japan, unless Tokyo raises the question.

Meanwhile, Frederick J. Libby, executive secretary of the National Council for Production of War, issued a statement remarking that MacArthur's report was "another example of the way the military forces are trying to dominate our country's policies."

"General MacArthur's request for an ultimate increase of the army by approximately 30,000 men, with the strengthening of America's positions in the Pacific is apparently timed to prevent, if possible, the substantial reduction in army expenditures that threatens this winter," Libby said.

"... The founders of this country took good care to keep the military under control, and in putting the purse strings in the hands of congress. No provision in the constitution has proven wiser than that."

Report "Disappointing." Representative Ross A. Collins, democrat, Mississippi, has criticized as "disappointing" the annual report of General Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff of the army, recommending military expansion.

As chairman of a sub-committee of the appropriations committee dealing with the war department supply bill, Collins' report attracted interest here. He will lead the fight for the war appropriation bill in the house.

Instead of keeping overage officers on the pay roll on an "unstarred" list, thus facilitating promotion and addition of other officers, as recommended by MacArthur, the Mississippi congressman said the matter should be approached in a straightforward and business-like way and eliminate the unfeeling even though it may be an unpleasant thing to do."

Collins, an advocate of a highly mechanized military force, said modern warfare requires the use of tanks, planes, chemical and machine guns.

"Forward thinking" men, he said, "have been forced to the view that personnel must partially give way in military budgets so that effective military weapons can be provided.

He was unable to disapprove in general MacArthur's recommendations, but great hopes the general would build up our army along modern lines and not permit his handwriting to be a mere lavish imitation of European continental fashions."

Sheriff Wounded.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff S. C. Cahoon is in a hospital today suffering a glass injury to his eye, suffered when an unidentified assailant fired twice at him through the window of his automobile, but missed.

King has been convicted of the slaying of J. E. McNair, Butts county policeman, a court fight for her custody was carried on by Mr. and Mrs. Smith and her great uncle and great aunt, Mr. and Mrs. August Johnson, of Portia county.

Although officers have said they expected the delivery of a ransom note to Mr. and Mrs. Smith, the grandparents thus far have not announced receipt of any such note.

Respite Again Saves Tom King From Chair

Tom King, aged Butts county sheriff, was saved from the electric chair in which he had been condemned to die, for the fifth time, when Governor Russell Thursday granted a 15-day respite for study of the record of the case after a clemency hearing.

King has been convicted of the slaying of J. E. McNair, Butts county policeman, by three different juries. The state supreme court has reviewed the case many times.

McNair was killed by a shotgun charge the night of November 23, 1925, as he and other officers approached a still they planned to raid.

Wild Life Has Holiday as Jack Cannon Returns Prosperity to Shell Salesmen.

Wild life in south Georgia has just about laughed itself to death. The quail are weak with laughter. The doves are so exhausted they can't fly. The rabbits are holding their sides.

Those four days which Nimrod Jack Cannon spent in their midst was almost too much for them.

And the rabbit hounds? Pot-lickers' local No. 1, are considering getting out an injunction. They ran two inches off their legs getting rabbits to run past Jack Cannon. And the rabbits were the safest things in the fields.

The Georgia Tech coaching nimrods reported to Coach William Alexander at the Flats Thursday morning. Mack Tharpe was hump-shouldered beneath the weight of the birds killed in four days—doves and quail.

Jack Cannon, the mighty roamer of football fields in 1929, with Notre Dame, reported. He slung his game bag down. There was one forlorn wood-pecker, shot while he occupied a grandstand seat watching Tharpe at doves; one bluebird, which flew against the windshield of the car, and one squirrel.

Mack Tharpe explained it. "We came to a tree where there was a squirrel's nest," he said. "Cannon fired both barrels. The nest was blown out of the tree and the squirrel, which had jumped, fell from the tree and landed on its head, exterminating itself."

Stock in various shell companies jumped as Cannon hunted. Rural storekeepers emptied shelves of shells. Years hence lead mines will be discovered in south Georgia.

The hound dogs ran rabbits past Cannon until the rabbits thought it was a game and kept on running after the hounds had given up and retired to a position behind Cannon, where they felt reasonably safe. The rabbits became so used to it that they ran past Cannon even when the hounds were not there.

Bobby Dodd, backfield coach, did not accompany the hunters. When I learned that Cannon was going hunting I stayed in Atlanta and had bullet-proof glass put in my windows. I had an idea what sort of a shot he would be.

Cannon indignantly denies that he is not a hunter. "A Cannon is always a hunter. The old family name indicates that we Cannons know how to use our canons. I have just learned that my gun didn't have sights on it."

Mack Tharpe will give his scrub football team a dinner this week. At the dinner Jack Cannon will be an honored guest. He will eat the bluebird broiled, the wood-pecker fricassee and the squirrel stewed.

THE WALTHOURS RIDE.

That's quite a story that Dan Parker tells about the Walthour boys, both of whom are riding in the six-day bike race in New York. There are a lot of stories about Bobby. He was before my day, but they still talk about him and his rides. Says Parker:

Two slim, blond kids ride by. They bear the name of one of the most famous of all cycling families—Walthour. The more blond is Bobby Jr., son of the famous rider, whose name he carries on. Thirty-odd years ago in Atlanta, Bobby Walthour Sr. sloped with a Georgia belle on a tandem bicycle. The story made the front pages all over the world, and was the inspiration for the song hit, "A Bicycle Built for Two." Three decades ago Bob Walthour was more of a hero in Atlanta than Bobby Jones is now. The town of Walthourville, Ga., is a monument to his fame. Bobby Sr. had a twin brother, Jimmy, who, though a professional bike rider, never was as successful as Bobby. The twin brothers each had blond sons, Bobby and Jimmy, and these two first cousins are the top-heads in the present six-day race. It is a bit ironic that Jimmy Jr., whose father couldn't ride as well as Bobby Sr., is now a better rider than Bobby Jr. There's an interesting story in Bobby the younger. He was born in the United States, but as an infant, went to Germany with his parents. His father made Germany his home for six years while racing in the European cycling centers and Bobby Jr. grew up speaking excellent German, but hardly a word of English. Returning to America at the age of 7, Bobby Jr. had to learn his native tongue before catching up with the kids of his age in school.

Georgia has done well in sport—Ty Cobb, Bobby Walthour, Bobby Jones, Nap Rucker, George Stallings—big stars in every sport. And now look at the adopted sons—Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson at Dover Hall, Ga.; Colonel Tillinghast L'Homedieu Huston at Darien, Ga.—and isn't there some fellow named Roosevelt down at Warm Springs who ran for something a week or so ago?

NO ROSE BOWL—BUT LOTS OF ROSES.

There are plenty of roses being tossed at the Auburn football team despite the fact the Plainsmen were not invited to the Rose Bowl game. The success of the Auburn team, which may yet meet the T. C. U. eleven in a post-season game, is one of the really outstanding achievements in Southern football. Three years ago the idea that Auburn would be the outstanding team in the conference would have been a most fantastic one. And yet Auburn is.

The football banquet is to be held Monday night following the return of the team from the South Carolina game at Birmingham on Saturday. Chet Wynne, head coach, and his assistant, Roger Kiley, have done more square yards of suffering this year than any other pair. Wynne writes:

Mr. Ralph McGill, Sports Editor,
Atlanta Constitution,
Atlanta, Georgia.

Dear Ralph: We plain Plainsmen are having what we call the official football banquet here next Monday evening, December 5, at 7:30. At that time we elect a captain for 1933 and have the alumni come in and tell us what sort of a job we've done. We are all very anxious for you to come down and join us. I know that it will require considerable sacrifice on your part, but know that you are a magnanimous soul I am hoping that you can be here. Whether we win Saturday or not Rog and I are going to smile and the suffering will all be over.

We all want to thank you for your visit this fall and for the great support you have given us throughout the season, and I sincerely hope you can be with us Monday evening.

With kindest regards, I am, sincerely, CHET WYNNE.

Sacrifice? Not if I am guaranteed that stooped shoulders will be straight and smiles replace the tears. It has been a very tough season on the newspapermen. It looked for a time as if we might lose one or two of the coaches here and there. But we pulled them all through. The only coach to take poison was one outside the Southern conference. It has been our job after defeats to explain that it isn't so bad after all. And a terrible

TECH CRIPPLES RETURN; SQUAD STARTS DRILLS

Hold Light Session; Chambers on Guard for Old Man Flu.

By Ralph McGill.

Georgia Tech's two injured players, Texas' George and Clyde, returned to the squad Thursday afternoon as Georgia Tech began practice for the California game.

Trainer Mike Chambers, who had returned the men to condition and then assisted Coach W. A. Alexander and his aides with a squad in first-class condition, was on the field all afternoon.

Trainer Chambers had a fly swatter, which he was using as a protection against any wandering insects, get stuck in the Flats. Once he swatted one, but it turned out to be just a wandering Chinese fever germ on its way to China. "I never would have swatted it had I looked twice," said Trainer Chambers, "it's a right pretty germs and doing no harm."

I have an idea that the influenza germs, which seem to be playing one-week stands at Tulane, Auburn and other sites of the higher educational advantages of football jackets too toward young men who have been through what they will have been able to laugh off any cold germs.

It was impossible to make one of those living, breathing human documents for the papers during the first practice. They were all out there for the first time since the Georgia game. And they felt pretty good about it, yipping around the place and wishing the field had been just that way for the Georgia game instead of what the boys called a sea of mud in their human documents written about that game.

It was what coaches call a limbering-up practice although there were no sore muscles to limber up. The big task today is to sell the boys on the idea that the Caltech game is a game and not just a pleasure trip with a sea voyage thrown in. And I don't think it will be difficult. The Jackets of this year are very serious-minded young men.

There will very likely be a light session about tomorrow. And there will be on or two others later on. But not many. Clyde Williams, the tackle who played more minutes than any other Tech player during the year, was as good as ever, as was Texas Wilcox, the guard. They suffered knee hurts, but were not suffering at all on Thursday.

The only startling news was an interview with Mr. Robert Lee Dodd, the backfield coach. He said that he did not care for any of the movie actors, running a fever over just one actress, Miss Silvia Sidney. The tall East Tennesseean will look only at the sandlot players and wonder what makes them sad.

The Jackets feel rather good about their season. They beat Clemson, North Carolina, Florida and Alabama. And tied Georgia. They feel that with a little luck they would have beaten Tulane, Kentucky and tied Auburn. In fact, they feel that with a few breaks they might be going to the coast with just one defeat against them.

And if Alabama beats the Gels of St. Mary's on Saturday, the Yellow Jacket stock will be rather high by virtue of that 6 to 0 defeat of old Alabama.

Loyola hoped to close its season with a win over Detroit at New Orleans.

Auburn Ends Pre-Game Work.

AUBURN, Ala., Dec. 1.—(UP)—After displaying some of what the opposition may expect Saturday, the Plainsmen ended their local training session today and prepared to depart tomorrow for Birmingham, scene of the battle.

Into the night the squad worked, polishing off its offense. The team appeared in fine form and perfect physical condition for the tenth and final game of a season thus far unmarked by a defeat or tie.

Thirty-three players will board the train early tomorrow arriving in Birmingham in time for a brisk workout at Legion field during the afternoon.

The week's training has been punctuated by an outstanding play of seniors, headed by Captain Jimmy Hitchcock, who make their last stand on an Auburn team against the Gamecocks.

Weather conditions completely reversed those of yesterday, when the squad arrived in a downpour of rain. The weather bureau has forecast mild weather for the game.

Four members of the team, Walker and Chappell, halfbacks, and recovered today from what was believed to have been a mild attack of flu. The boys ran a slight temperature last night.

Coach Thomas was especially pleased at the improvement shown by John "Hurry" Cain, star fullback, who is nursing a knee injury. The knee is hurting a bit during the long journey and bothered Cain during practice yesterday.

As a result of the snap and drive, brought by the southerners in their workouts, some of the local observers have switched to make them favorites over the Gels.

Those in charge of the game expect an end of around 30,000.

Bumblebees Play Flashes Saturday

A third game to settle a 12-to-12 in the first contest between the East Lake Flashes and the Bumblebees will be played at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Rose Bowl field.

The second game between the two will be a one-sided victory for the Bumblebees when the Flashes did not have but 11 players in uniform and ready for the game, which was booked as a practice affair.

In pulling out of the line and forming with the defense, he has had trouble with former fullback players who are leading ball carriers in offensive style. An able performer both offensively and defensively, he is one of the two best guards Auburn, one of the six teams in the United States neither beaten or tied, has had in a decade.

Eddie Hart, Princeton's famous old tackle and captain, acted as toastmaster at a preliminary luncheon yesterday and among those present were Ted Cox, of Yale; Elmer Oliphant, of Purdue and Army; Big Bill Edwards, of Princeton; Ed Garisch, of Army; Harry Hammon, of Michigan, and a host of other former stars.

John W. Heisman, who played at Pennsylvania nearly 50 years ago and later coached at several universities, outlined the plan for the formation of a football luncheon club, explaining:

"We all like to get around and tell how we ran 93 yards for the winning touch or smashed somebody's nose when they played a nasty trick, but the trouble is in getting listeners."

SOUTH CAROLINA EXPECTS TO WIN SATURDAY GAME

Auburn, However, Is in Top-Notch Shape for Title Battle.

By the Associated Press.

South Carolina, the only team capable of throwing the Southern conference football race into turmoil, left last night for Birmingham, where Saturday it battles Auburn, heir-apparent to the title.

Billy Laval's Gamecocks romped through their final work out on their home field yesterday afternoon and trained from Columbia late night. They will reach Birmingham, Ala., tomorrow. Auburn also took a last drill at home and plans to move to the game site this morning. Signal sessions are arranged for both evenings Friday afternoon.

All night they have encountered an unpredictable season, the Gamecocks are confident of halting Auburn and leaving Tennessee and Louisiana State to wage verbal fight for the mythical crown. Tennessee has won six conference games but was tied by Vanderbilt. The Vols close their campaign Saturday against Florida. Alabama will finish its southern season with four conference victories and no defeats but the Baton Rouge Tigers were beaten twice and tied once outside the circle.

GATORS CUT UP.

The Carolina squad, about three full teams strong, was reported in excellent shape. Grayson, who had been suffering from a cold, was said to be improving but it was believed Coach Laval would start a backfield composed of Mauney, Clary, Hambright and McDougall and save Wolf for later service.

Auburn's varsity ripped through South Carolina's defense as gutted by resolute and was able to stop most of the Gamecock's attacking maneuvers and passes for short gains.

Tennessee's squad also left Jacksonville last night. Coach Bob Neyland will have his full strength to throw against the Alligators in the Volunteers' final game.

Southern California Officials Invite Pittsburgh as Rose Bowl Foe

The Psychological Tangle.

Ten days ago hardly anyone gave the Navy even an outside chance to beat an Army team, which looked to be one of the stand-outs. But things can change in a hurry in this football madhouse. In addition to the physical punishment the Army absorbed from Notre Dame, old man psychology has been dragged in by the coattails, and now more than a few smart observers and soothsayers are giving the Navy at least an even chance, with a possible edge.

It is an interesting study in cause and effect, mind and matter, flesh and spirit, even if you are not wrought up over the final result.

Here was the Army galloping blithely and bravely along the high road—20-0 against Yale—46-0 against Harvard—and then, bam and boooie—the Notre Dame debacle.

COMMISSIONER IN CONFERENCE WILL BE SOUGHT

Several Schools Favor Plan But Rejection Is Expected.

By Dillon Graham,

Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Southern Conference will be asked at its annual meeting in Knoxville, Tenn., next week to employ a commissioner of athletics, but the proposal will be rejected unless member institutions reverse their stand of a year ago.

Theoretically, most of the 23 colleges and universities favor the commissioner plan, but many are opposed for practical purposes. The annual cost of a commissioner, headquarters and other expenses would approximate $10,000.

Many schools fear the added expense of a commissioner cannot be taken on at this time while others will resent the aspect of an outsider having a hand in their athletic affairs.

The plan is not a new one. Certain schools have advocated such an appointment for years. In September, 1931, representatives of eight schools

Taxi! This Tech Boy Earns His Education

Russell Julius Morton Drives Cab, Takes Military, Plays Football, Studies in Spare Time.

By Jimmy Jones.

Every now and then, some person with nothing else to do, will go out and seize the nearest soapbox, from which to deliver a blast upon the sport known as football. It is then that we hear for several days that the game needs deodorizing, de-emphasizing and other things ending with "izings."

If there remains a man, whether babbitt or iconoclast, who is willing to renew this now ancient grouse, Atlanta and Georgia Tech have a perfect checkmate.

We would bring him down and let him meet "Taxi" Morton—Russell Julius Morton.

One day three years ago, while engaged in his daily vocation of chauffeuring passengers about the city's environs, there came to "Taxi" Morton a long longing for a college education. He was convinced of his heart's desire when he hauled dapper collegians from the Terminal station out to school and saw them disappear into dormitory entrances.

NOBLE RESOLVE.

"I will get me a college education, even if I have to push this cab until midnight every night to get it," resolved the young man in the taxi driver's uniform.

Thus it came to pass that in the fall of 1930, the name of Russell Julius Morton was enrolled at Georgia Tech as a student of civil engineering.

At that time the resolve of "Taxi" Morton had been tested to the utmost. In order to defray his expenses through college, "Taxi" has kept his appointments at the cab company's offices with unflagging zeal.

The coming of many midnight hours found him grimly at the driver's wheel. Between fares he would park

HARD SCHEDULE OF PANTHERS CAUSES AWARD

Invitation to Pitt Only One Made to Any School.

By Paul Zimmerman,

Associated Press Sports Writer.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—(AP)—In a surprise move, the University of Southern California today invited Pittsburgh as its opponent in the eighteenth annual Rose tournament game at Pasadena January 2.

The announcement came at a meeting when it appeared that Michigan might be able to clear the last barrier of the Big Ten conference and get the call. It was generally supposed that even Colgate held a better chance of playing in the annual Battle of the Roses.

Willis O. Hunter, Trojan director of athletics, issued the invitation and an immediate response was forthcoming from Don Harrison, athletic director of Pittsburgh.

In selecting Coach Jock Sutherland's team, the Southern California athletic board of control said it was motivated "by the extremely difficult and representative schedule that the Pittsburghers have so successfully completed this season."

The Panthers played a 10-game schedule and came out without a defeat in a series of games which carried them into grid conflict with outstanding elevens from coast to coast. Two scoreless ties with Ohio State and Nebraska and a mirror the season in which Army, Notre Dame, Stanford, Pennsylvania, Carnegie Tech, West Virginia, Duquesne and Ohio Northern were beaten.

THIRD VENTURE.

It will be Pittsburgh's third venture in Rose tournament play with the Panthers still seeking their first victory. Stanford won a 7-to-6 game in 1928, while the Trojans ran up the largest score in the annals of the contest in 1930, defeating the Sutherland-coached aggregation which boasted several All-American stars.

Although no official comment was made, Southern California athletic authorities had let it be known after the selection of their team to extend the invitation that the people were certain that Michigan, undefeated champion of the Big Ten, would be invited if the conference rule against post-season contests could be lifted.

Observers in the west took today's move to mean that an advance poll of the Western conference indicated the same game in the stars. The Wolverines being so favored.

The Trojan athletic board met in a prolonged session last night, but the members denied at that time an opponent had been considered. They said the meeting was one of routine, taking care of other impending business.

Southern California, unbeaten and untied in 18 previous games, has carried the banner of the Pacific slope in three previous Rose tourney games, winning all of them.

PENN STATE LOSSES.

Penn State lost to S. C. 14 to 3 on Nov. 29, while Tulane was defeated 21 to 12, last New Year's Day.

Comparative statistics favor the far west, which has won seven games and lost five. Three were ties. Of the opponents, the eastern delegates have won one game in the stars. Two of those contests resulted in ties, leaving the west five triumphs.

The record of middle-western teams stands at one victory and one defeat, while the south holds the edge with three wins, a defeat and a tie.

Southern California has one game remaining on its regular schedule. This is the annual Notre Dame conflict, which will take place here Dec. 14.

ONE SELECTION.

Mr. C. S. Bolen, of Southern Bell, submits the following football team:

Dear Mr. McGill: While you are selecting All-American football teams, I wish to call your attention to a team which rates attention. That was the squad of St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake, Mich.

The roster is as follows: Senk, Duda, Szule, Myska, Matuszewski, Honorski, Kaczmarek, Rudnicki, Fabinski, Kanios, Malinowski, Fiedorczyk, Modzewski, Szapka, Smigelski, Pozniak, Pawlik, Dempa, Dziedzian, Gromacki, Wroblewski, Manista, Wotnick, Nawrocki, Chmielewski, Jurach, Sokolowski, Newman, Trzcienski, Przyblyski, Iwarski, Dolata, Majewski.

This roster would make an excellent lesson for a class in typewriting, or a practice for radio announcers. Anyway, I'll cautiously wager an all-American nickel you cannot pronounce more than three names in the list without calling for help.

Sincerely,

C. S. BOLEN.

I wouldn't risk a whole nickel on it.

TAXI? THIS BOY EARN'S SCHOOLING

vade another realm of sport at Georgia Tech. Tom Neblett, a Georgia boy who volunteered as a heavyweight to fight "Mouk" Neblett, captain of the varsity football team. One afternoon during the annual boxing tournament at the school, Mike Chambers, the boxing coach, was calling for a heavyweight to enter the ring with Neblett, a champion boxer. And so, Grinnin broady, old "Taxi" shuffled forth from the assembled students and clambered through the ropes. In vain, Chambers tried to dissuade him. But "Taxi" shook his head and called for the gloves. After three seconds of sparring, Neblett connected with "Taxi," and the two combatants exchanged a brief smile still on his face.

Morton still drives a cab three nights a week during this, his junior year. Last summer he decided to enter the construction field for a change, and Walt Godwin, the former Tech grid star, who was engineer for the construction of the Grand Central station, had just an estimator's assistant.

"Taxi" was not quite nimble enough for the role. It called for skipping lightly along a swaying scaffold 60 feet above the ground, handing tools to the workmen. After a few days of this he decided the cab was easier. So "Taxi" returned.

Every day I passed a step on the scaffold about a hundred folks would come rushing up," said "Taxi."

"They didn't want to see me get killed, but in case I did they wanted to be on hand to apply for the job," he added.

On last Friday, Coach Alexander, who is remembering the other "forgotten" men on the Grey Devils, presented "Taxi" with a gold "T." He was very proud of it. This evening he plans to take a "holiday" in order to attend Mack Tharp's dinner for the "scrubs" at the Capital City Club.

"What do you usually do with yourself when you get a day off?" Taxi was asked.

"Sometimes I go to see my girl," he replied with a smile.

Panthers Accept Rose Bowl Offer.

PITTSBURGH. Dec. 1.—(AP)—Pitt's varsity football team, conqueror of Notre Dame and Army, voted today to accept the University of Southern California's invitation to play the Trojans in the big bowl classic of college football in Los Angeles January 2.

Informed at noon that the Panthers had been selected as the eastern opponent in the annual east-west struggle, Athletic Director Don Harrison put the matter of acceptance squarely up to the players who have completed the most severe schedule in Pitt's gridiron history.

All the players voted for acceptance, expressing a surprising willingness to re-enter training for the game following their so-called "suicide" schedule.

The Panthers played through 10 games without a defeat. They were held to scoreless ties by Ohio State and Nebraska.

It will be Pitt's third visit to the Rose Bowl. Back in 1928, the Panthers lost to Stanford, 7-6, and in 1930 they were crushed 47-14, by Southern California.

The only victory recorded on the west coast by the Panthers was in 1922 when Stanford was defeated in a regularly scheduled game. Pop Warner's team of that year and took over the reins at Stanford the following season.

No plans have been made with regard to the time of departure of the Panthers for the coast.

92 COLTS ELIGIBLE FOR HAMBLETONIAN

GOSHEN, N. Y., Dec. 1.—(UPI)—A field of 92 colts is eligible to compete in the rich Hambletonian stake of $10,000, to be run Saturday, Dec. 10, at the track.

Of this number, nine fleet racers from as many states appeared to be the best bets to capture the blue ribbon event of the trotting and pacing calendar. The event carries a purse of $60,000. The field will be reduced considerably on January 1, when a second field comes from the entries.

One of the much discussed entries is Sir Raleigh, 2-04-3-4, sold by the F. C. Niles estate at the recent Old Glory auction in New York to Allan J. Wilson, of Boston, for $3,700. Another is Spencer McElwain, 2-04 1-2, owned by W. H. L. McCourtie, of Dallas.

Taylor Challenges Attell to Bout

Jack Taylor, 166-pound veteran boxer who has appeared several times on Atlanta cards, last night challenged Young Abe Attell, who was a favorite during his fighting days here a decade ago, to a bout anywhere and anytime.

Attell returned this week from New York. He is working out daily at the Atlanta theater. Attell has kept in good condition and is ready to take on anybody's weight, he says.

"Want him," Taylor said last night. "I would appreciate your printing a challenge to that effect. I will take on Young Attell at any time."

Marilyn Miller and Six Companions Taking Unintentional Trip on Liner

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Marilyn Miller and six friends were on an unintentional boat ride today, bound for Europe on the Bremen with no baggage and apparently no passports.

The seven went down to the Brooklyn pier Tuesday night to say farewell to Mrs. Alan Dwan, wife of the motion picture producer, told to head out to sea the "all ashore" call and were carried out to sea by the Army without money.

"On board the Bremen without money" read the radiogram sent by the stage and screen actress to Mrs. Carter, mother of Miss Miller's first husband, Frank Carter.

The fact that Don Alvarado, motion picture actor, was one of the "stowaways" led to reports that he and Miss Miller were married. There have been frequent rumors that the two were engaged. A few weeks ago the Army reported that "just good friends" and that reports of an engagement were started "because we are seen together so much."

"She may be engaged to Don," Mrs. Carter said arrangements had been made by radio to supply those on board with money.

Fair Weather Attends 'Roll Proof' Passage

GIBRALTAR, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The new Italian liner Conte di Savoia arrived here tonight, stayed an hour and continued on her maiden journey to New York.

Carter said, "but I do not think they have been or are going to be married on board the ship."

In messages to the North German Lloyd line, Captain Leopold Ziegenein, of the Bremen, listed his other unintentional passengers as "Mrs. Hughes Murray, Miss Anita and Miss Betty Murray, and Mr. and Mrs. Carter."

The messages did not say, but it was assumed that none of the seven had passports and would therefore be unable to land at European ports.

The Bremen stops at Cherbourg, Southampton and Bremen on its eastward trip.

Mrs. Carter said arrangements had been made by radio to supply those on board with money.

The trophy is awarded for efficiency, seamanship and knowledge of navigation problems. A miniature battle will be staged as a part of the program.

It was said a creditable record was made.
